DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 2, 16 and 36, drawn to a dryer, classified in class 347, subclass 102.
- II. Claims 3 and 34, drawn to a cutting mechanism, classified in class 347, subclass 101.
- III. Claim 5, drawn to a bar code input device, classified in class 347, subclass 107.
- IV. Claims 6 and 7, drawn to a video display, classified in class 345, subclass 156.
- V. Claim 10, drawn to an air supply to prevent media from sticking to the printhead, classified in class 347, subclass 67.
- VI. Claims 11 and 12, drawn to a capping device, classified in class 347, subclass 29.
- VII. Claim 13, drawn to a rail adjustor, classified in class 347, subclass 8.
- VIII. Claim 15 and 32, drawn to a supply canister, classified in class 347, subclass 2.
- IX. Claims 17, 18 and 35, drawn to a slitter, classified in class 234, subclass 35.
- X. Claim 19, drawn to spindles, classified in class 347, subclass 104.

XI. Claim 20, drawn to a pre-heater platen, classified in class 347, subclass 102.

XII. Claims 33 and 46, drawn to a tote, classified in class 224.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

The inventions are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case:

Subcombination I has separate utility such as a device for drying print media.

Subcombination II has separate utility such as a device for cutting print media.

Subcombination III has separate utility such as a device for reading bar codes to be input to a device.

Subcombination IV has separate utility such as a device displaying information.

Subcombination V has separate utility such as a device for preventing print media from sticking to a printhead.

Subcombination VI has separate utility such as a device for capping a printhead, etc.

See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Julian D. Huffman whose telephone number is (571) 272-2147. The examiner can normally be reached on 10:00a.m.-6:30p.m. Monday-Friday.
